

Please allow satellite radio companies to transmit the same materials that standard radio and TV transmit. I travel weekly and benefit from the simple use and consistency of my XM Radio. I frequently listen for updates on local weather and traffic situations. I use this feature in several cities that I drive in.
Thanks,